NELSON'S ACCUSATION STARTS SERIOUS ROW.

Attorney Brandeis Charged With Concealing Facts from Ballinger-Pinchot Committee - Democrat Members Defend Lawyer.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

W ASHINGTON, April 1.—The most serious clash that has yet occurred among the members of the Ballinger-Pinchot Investigating Committee marked the sitting today. The quarrel, which continued for an hour or more, was added evidence of the growing feeling of partisanship among the Democratic and Republican members of the committee and was taken to mean the hopelessness of an unanimous agreement.

Justice Satisfies Superintendent of Insurance.

Lent Money to Buckley Merely as Friend.

But Browne Connects Him With Another Case.

NEW FORK, April 1.—Justice Edward E. McCall of the State Supreme Court explained today his financial transactions with William H. Buckley, legislative agent for the fire insurance companies;
After the day's hearing, Justice McCall met Superintendent Hotchkiss of the insurance department.

The statement first takes up the $35,000 check issued to Buckley, which the justice indorsed with Buckley's name and deposited in his own bank account. Buckley owed $37,000 to the North American Trust Company, which he had borrowed from the International Banking and Trust Company. When the International was taken over by the North American, the loans were called.

ACCOMMODATES BUCKLEY.

Mr. Buckley, according to Justice McCall, induced the Phenix to loan $25,000 to him on the collateral held by the North American company. There was due a balance, which, with interest, amounted to $2731. This amount, Justice McCall, who was then a practicing lawyer, advanced.

As Buckley had to leave town, he arranged that Mr. McCall should receive the $35,000 from the Phenix and take up the loan. Mr. McCall accordingly deposited the $35,000 check to Buckley's order in his bank, drew his own check for $37,731 to the North American company, paid the loan and obtained the securities which he turned over to the Phenix as security for the new loan of $35,000.

Justice McCall then takes up the matter of the $12,000 check. Buckley had borrowed $13,000 from the Phenix on February 16, 1898, and $3000 on January 19, 1901, but Justice McCall said he has no knowledge of either of these loans. Buckley went to him in December, 1909, and asked him for $346 to pay interest due on a loan. He got the money. On January 14, 1901, Buckley want to him in December, and the McCall this time for CATANIA, April 1.—Expert opinion concerning the activity of Mount Etna is pessimistic. Frank A. He said tonight: "One could not stand the deafening and horrible roar of the volcane for more than one day. It would certain-ly drive him mad."

ONLY FRIENDLY LOANS.

"My only interest in the entire subject." says the justice, "was that a friend was in need of money; I had it, and on his request I loaned it to him. On January 29, 1901, Mr. Buckley paid me back $13,000 of those advances by giving me the check of the Phenix Insurance company. I beg to advise you that I never in my life had any connection or relation with the Phenix Fire Insurance Company."

Aside from the statement of Justice McCall, the interest of the day centered upon Stewart Browne, private banker, promoter, and self-styled "deyil" of the International Banking and Trust Company, who proved a fluent, daring and adroit witness.

Mr. Browne, who called himself a "woodshed lawyer"—that is, a lawyer of knowledge, but with no right to practice—made no attempt to conceal that he and Justice McCall (then a practicing lawyer) had drawn up the bill to incorporate the American Bond and Mortgage Guarantee Company, the parent of the International, in a way designed to conceal from the Legislature, Gov. Roosevelt and the people, the true purpose of the bill.

As soon as the new corporation was on its feet, the names of Edward McCall, Buckley and State Senator Louis F. Goodsell appeared on the books as owners of 100 shares each, worth $45.900 in all. Mr. Browne insisted each of these three had paid for his stock of these three had paid for his stock of these three had paid for his stock. of these three had paid for his stock. The furniture for the International was costly. The report of the committee to the superintendent of banks, dated December 31, 1899, showed an item of $25,985 for "furniture and fixtures." The books of the company showed $6642 spent for furniture.

Later another entry of $20,000 for "furniture" was discovered, authorized in January, but dated back to December. Browne explained in this instance, "furniture" represented expenses of organization.

Just before the subject was disposed of, Mr. Fitzgerald of New York attempted to get a direct vote upon a motion to recommit the bill under consideration, with instructions for the committee to report it with an amendment repealing the Payne-Aldrich tariff law.

STRAIGHT PARTY VOTE. By a strict party vote of 160 to 116, n which the insurgents lined up with he regular Republicans, a point of order against Mr. Fitzgerald's motion was sustained.

The amendment adopted by the House today was introduced by Mr. Gillett of Massachusetts. Under the terms of his amendment, Mr. Gillett said he thought the President would rule that records of corporations of use and value to the public should be made public. He said he thought the majority of corporations ought not to be made public, as they should not be open to the inspection of rival firms.

Mr. Fitzgerald, combatting the Gillett amendment, said he was in favor of the fullest publicity of all corporation affairs and he offered an amendment providing simply that reports rement providing simply that reports re-party out of a hole. Under this provision, no one will have access to these reports of corporations except the President and his advisers, which is a dangerous proposition. Human nature has been the same since the time Adam and Eve were driven from Paradise, and in the course of time some-body might use this information for a political purpose."

Mr. Payne said publicity could not be accorded in response to mere curiosity, and he believed the Gillett amendment would accomplish all desirable publicity.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY. Mr. Hitchcock of Nebraska sug-gested that the head of the departgested that the head of the department in which the information on corporations had been gathered had become the head of the Republican Campaign Committee two years ago, and the "great trust buster" of Ohio, Wade H. Ellis, had been taken from the prosecution of corporations and placed in charge of the campaign in Ohio. Those examples of activity in politics of men who possessed information regarding corporations, he said, should be remembered when considering pending legislation.

proceedings must be begun before the May grand jury, in 1993, Mr. Brandeis said he would show that the AttorneyGeneral had few, if any, facts before him on which to base his criticism of Glavis. Todd said that the May date was a mistake, that he had told Glavis and Jones the July grand jury.

As to the letters alleged to have been concealed by Glavis, Mr. Todd said he did not consider the evidence against Glavis sufficient to warrant a prosecution and so wrote the Attorney-General.

Mr. Vertrees read from a statement by Commissioner Dennett an agree-ment bearing a date in April and say-ing criminal proceedings must be be-gun the following month. He read this in justification of Atty,-Gen. Wicker-sham's statement as to the presenta-tion of testimony in May, 1908, and to contradict Mr. Brandels. The latter, however, said he had mentioned this fact.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

Mr. Love said he was a little "sore" against Ballinger for having put him to work under Jones, and, as he was only an "assistant," he did not feel it incumbent on him to sign any reports made by Jones. Jones said the witness had declined to sign because of his association with the claimants in Alaska.

the members believe there is an excelent opportunity for one af the best polo clubs in the country at Pasadena.

After looking the grounds over thoroughly yesterday, Capt. Besley of the Hermosillo team, who has traveled everywhere, and who is an ardent polo player. said: "Pasadena should support one of the very best polo clubs in the world, as she has everything in her favor to make a club. In the first place, you have the city to draw from. Here a man can play polo and yet attend to his business, either in Pasadena or Los Angeles. That is the principal reason. In most other places where polo is being played there is no city, and the only thing the player can do is to play polo and nothing else. Then you have the people who will attend the games.

"There should be no trouble another year to have polo players come to Southern California from Chicago. New York and other eastern cities. The reason why they have never been here is because they could not get enough polo to pay them. If they can have a couple of menths of good, fast polo during the winter, the best teams of the country will winter here.

how the eastern fight followers are already talking about it.

"Gleason will be here in a day or so. He went on to New York and is meeting with success in arranging the details of the match. He told me before I left Chicago that he fixed up everything with the railroads that would enable the sports from any part of the country to come to Emeryville without a great deal of trouble and extra expense. It has been so arranged that a ticket to the fight will be sold with the railroad ticket and a man has only the one purchase to make to see the fight.

"Jack also had a long, heart-to-heart talk with Johnson, and Gleason told me that the Galveston negro would leave Chicago on the 18th of this month and would be here not later than the 24th. Johnson announced that he would train at the Seal Rock House and would begin work immediately on his arrival."

the Alexandria last night as a fitting close to the most successful automo-bile show ever held on the Pacific Coast. Members of the Show Com-mittee were the special guests. Woods R. Woolwine was toastmaster.

Fred W. Flint, chairman of the com mittee, told some of the early history of the show. When urged by the toastmaster, Filnt referred to the fight toastmaster, Fint referred to the light with the City Council for the permit to erect the immense tent at Flesta Park. Film was the first man to sug-gest holding the show in Flesta Park and his plan at once met with the ap-and his plan at once met with the approval of the dealers.

When the big canvas was stretched and the show was beginning to come into form, Earle C. Anthony, another of the committeemen honored last night, got into action. Earle told last night of his hard work to secure the light for the show space corners. That he succeeded was shown by the handsome display at Flesta. Anthony was given an ovasite last night of last n he succeeded was shown by the hand-some display at Flesta. Anthony was given an ovation last night following his address.

Norman W. Church, who has just returned from the East, gave an interesting account of the attitude of the eastern trade toward the first Licensed Automobile Dealers' Association. Church said the East is looking toward Los Augeles for suggestions. He stated that the attitude of this city toward the licensed situation had made an impression in the East and had caused other cities to fall into line by forming associations of their own.

Church was enthusiastic over the trade prospects. He declared that every factory in the East regards Los Angeles as one of the great distributing points for automobiles. The trade conditions here have become most important to the manufacturers, Church asserted.

Sepound class—McGillen will box seried.

As coast representative for the Stoddard-Dayton Motor Car Company, Church could talk with authority on certain conditions which are of great interest to the autoists. ANNUAL COMPETITION TODAY AT BAER PARK.

Forty-four Athletes Representing Six Teams Entered in Final Meet of Season-Citrus High Doped to Win. Glendale Sends Fourteen Men Into

The annual track and field meet of the suburban section of the Los An-geles County High Schools is to draw forty-four young athletes from six teams into the competition at the Occi-dental campus this afternoon, the open-ing event being scheduled to start at 1 o'clock.

Teams are entered from Bonita Un-on, Burbank, Citrus Union, El Monte Glendale and Monrovia City High Schools. The athletes from Citrus Un-ion and Monrovia High Schools were represented in the Southern Califor-nia championship meet held last Sat-urday.

Citrus High will enter two creditable performers in Jackson and Whitted. Jackson ran a strong second to Rubio and Dawson in the sprints last week, and showed more speed than any of the sprinters outside the noblemen. Whitted is sure to make a strong show-ing in the field events, and with the assistance of the nine other entires the Citrus bunch appears to be the most

Glendale has always sent in a fair-ly strong team, which this year will depend largely on the work of the Emery boys for points. Last year the Glendalites had Walton and Stine, the two 'varsity winners on the U.S.C. team. Fourteen men will represent the Glendale school, the largest squad

The entries are: The fifty-yard dash-Gillette (Bonita,) Pollock (Burbank,) Jackson, Dan-leis (Citrus,) Bourne (Glendale,) Glen-ny (Monrovia).

William F. Bush was silently eloquent. Arising to the humor of the occasion, Bush swung his arms like flails, gesticulated madly and stamped all over the mezzanine floor of the Alexandria banquet room without uttering a word. His speech was the hit of the evening.

A. M. Young's toast was, "How I Love to Count Money." He was introduced by the toastmaster as the man who had quit the banking business because he could not make money enough, and had then entered the automobile industry. Young told funny stories, and, of course, his speech was popular.

P. H. Greer, in a neatly worded address, gave the floor to H. I. Fennimors. Before he sat down Greer made a hit by telling what he didn't do toward the success of the show. Greer was one of the hard workers on the Show Committee, but always refused to accept any of the praise. He was ready to jump into the harness at any minute.

Norman W. Church, who has just returned from the East, gave an interesting account of the attitude of the eastern trade toward the first Li-

Operators and Miners to Hold Conferences.

Illinois and Southwest Offer Hardest Task.

Several Districts Will Soon Reach Agreement.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] INDIANAPOLIS, April 1.—National leaders of the United Mine Workers and operators' associations in the bituminous coal fields were busy today preparing for conferences, in which it is hoped settlements on the new wage contracts will be reached. Negotiations in the southwest, in Illinois, and in Western Pennsylvania.

Illinois, and in Western Pennsylvania will be prolonged, as some of the operators maintain they cannet afford to pay the wage increase of 5 cents a ton demanded by the miners, and other beatty applies.

In Iowa, Western Kentucky, Indiana, Ohlo and Central Pennsylvania, ine miners and operators seemed in a fair way to come to an agreement in a few days. In many localities temporary arrangements for continuing work is mines were formulated.

marched to the plug factory of the American Tobacco Company at Eighteenth and Broadway, and attempted to draw out the employes. The streets surrounding the factory were cleared. The number of women stemmers on strike is now 3200, four factories are closed and others crippled, and today it is expected 4500 women employed in the plug-making and cigar departments will quit in sympathy. The strikers demand $3 a hundred pounds for stemming the inferior leaf, $2.50 a hundred for stemming the better grade, and a commission of 10 cents on the dollar. They ask, further that the sanitary conditions at the factories be improved, and that the scales on which the tobacco is weighed out to them be inspected by authorized persons and accurately adjusted. The grievances of the strikers have been submitted to the general officers of the company in New York.

John Mitchell, accompanied by Dennis Hayes, fourth vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, went to New York today. It is rumored a meeting of labor leaders may be held there today and another effort made to settle the street-carstrike. The police department has refused a permit for the parade of women sympathisers of the strikers Saturday. The proposed parade was post-poned until a week from tomorrow, in order to have tested in the courts the right of Mayor Reyburn and Director Henry Clay of the Department of Public Safety to stop such a march.

let us run the city outside of politics, it's politics, it's politics that has made Pittsburgh so rotten."

"I hear that some of those Councilmen sold their votes and their honor for $3.10," continued Mr. Carnegie.
"Now if I were sping to be a thief, I'd —" Here, Mr. Carnegie checked Here Mr. Carnegie checked This was his only smile of the day.

PRAISES ROCKEFELLER. Mr. Carnegie says he thought Mr. Rockefelier's foundation plan was all right, that Mr. Rockefeller had evidently thought the whole matter out before taking it up. For himself, Mr. Carnegie said he rejoiced that when he was gone his money would be used in furthering the institutions which he had started. He closed with the following statement regarding indiscriminate giving:

inate giving: "I have often said you could not boost a man up a ladder, unless he did some of the climbing, and if you let go of him he drops to the ground; the last state of that man is worse than

CARNEGIE GUEST OF FORMER ASSOCIATES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
PITTSBURGH, April 1.—Andrew Carnegie, as a retired general, was the guest tonight of the members of his former staff, who served in his service in the steel industry.

the steel industry.

He sat with them at dinner at the Duquesne Club, exchanged reminiscenses, and made the acquaintance of new leaders in steel manufacture. The Carnegie Veterans' Association arranged the banquet on the occasion of Mr. Carnegie's first visit to the city in nearly four years. In nearly four years.

John Unger, director of the research laboratory of the Carnegle mills, spoke on the Carnegle company's past and future, to which the Laird of Skibo responded with entertaining reminiscences and prophecies.

Charles M. Schwab, William P. Pal-mer, Alfred A. Corey, Jr., William E. Corey, Azor A. Hunt and others, com-prising a party of sixty, were present to do honor to the guest.

Egriler in the day Mr. Carnegie had belyingly admitted by had missed the partier in the day art. Carnegie had jokingly admitted he had missed the mark of his ambition in failing to be a reporter, and to a party of men who besieged him at the Hotel Schenley he talked in striking sentences of many topics.

He admitted his pride in Pittsburgh had his path in its discrete hy recent fore the fish and it was instantly selzed.

For one hour and forty minutes he fought the fish upon this filmsy tackle. The breaking strain of the line used was twelve pounds. Every-move the fish made it churned the water. The rod bent many times to the size of a hoop. By gradually-reversing the engine the launch was brought alongside the fish.

Several times the launch was pulled around like a small skiff, and the occupants of the boat were drenched to the skin. After several efforts a rope was passed around the monster's body and it was made secure to the cleat. This is thought to be the only case known to angiers where a sunfish has taken hold of any moving bait. Usually they are considered a sluggish species of fish.

As a big game hunter in Africa Me-Millan has had many experiences, but today he stated that the capture of the fish had pleased him more than anything since his visit here. Recently he won a gold button from the Light Tackle Class of the Tuna Club with an albacore weighing fifty pounds, McMillan has fished daily for two months from the launch Clover and has captured several varieties of large fish.

a St. Louis bath-house, took the first train to his wife in Cincinnati, where she was visiting, and the deserted affinity in Kansas City sent two detectives after the deserting eloper. When the elopement funds went low, Martin pawned Mrs. McCoy's $125 diamond ring for $45, and her $275 set of furs and her suit case for $15.

Martin today took oath before Justice Shepard that the pawning took place with Mrs. McCoy's consent.

"Never," rejoined Mrs. McCoy, a tastefully dressed woman. "The man's words are as false as he is. And he never told me he was going back to his wife. He spoke only of me, Mexleo and Cuba. We reached Kansas City on Wednesday and stopped at the Victoria. Mr. Martin went out. Then comes a messenger boy with a note: 'Follow the boy.'

SMOKES "HOP." SMOKES "HOP."

"From curiosity I followed down the North End to a hop joint. I tried the experiment of hop smoking. And for fear of thieves I gave Martin my diamond for safe keeping."

Two days later. Mrs. McCoy said, Martin borrowed her suit case, slipped her furs in it and never came back. Later he sent a note telling where her belongings had been pawned.

Martin's testimony fairly sparkled with wine and highballs. "We left Des Moines with eighteen bottles of wine." Martin swore.

"Just a few bottles in a suit case," said Mrs. McCoy.

"We had to have a stateroom to store our liquor away," Martin declared.

Pippins 5c Ciga

You want to buy a cigar for a nickel. That nickel entitles you to a certain amount of comfort and enjoyment. If you buy a PIPPIN you get the greatest amount of satisfaction that a nickel can buy in the shape of a cigar.

Many cigar dealers are able to sell you a five-cent cigar at a greater profit than they make on PIPPINS, and there is a natural temptation for them to try to sell you such goods.

Out of respect for the purchasing power of your nickel, see that it buys a PIPPIN. No other 5-cent cigar can approach PIPPINS in value—and value means satisfaction for the man who spends the nickel. Remember this if the dealer offers you something "just as good." There isn't any "just as good." Stick to PIPPINS.

Danced With the Dummy.

An asylum for the deaf and dumb, being sadly in need of funds, gave a dance. Among the many outsiders present were two good-looking men. As they were talking together, one of them suddenly exclaimed: "By Jove! there's a pretty girl. I would like to dance with her."

"Why don't you ask her?" responded his companion.

John had played him such a trick about the sale of a certain cow that the farmer declared nothing should make him forgive him. Impressed by the exhortations of the clergyman and moved by fear of the consequences of dying unforgiving and unforgiven, he turned to the minister and said, with an air of satisfaction at having hit off a solution of the difficulty: "All right; jest as you say. If I die, I fergive him; but if I live, by Jimminy, he'd better look out!"—[The Pathfinder.

strawberry blonde or a peachy summer girl you'd better let-strawberries and peaches alone. If you don't you are apt to collide with nature's selective law, which makes only opposites attractive.

All this was explained tonight by George J. Drews, S.A.B. (Doctor of Alimentarianism.) in a lecture before the Vegetarian Society at the John Crerar Library.

"People should eat food that agrees with their character." he said. "Persons of positive character should eat negative food, and vice versa. Sour apples don't go well with persons with that sort of a disposition. In like manner, those of sunny character should not eat the sweet fruits. Positive should go with negative if you expect the best results."

One woman explained to the doctor, after the lecture, that apples disagreed with her. She wanted to know the reason for this.

"It isn't the apples that you have a grievance against," he said. "The trouble was probably that apples, after they got into your stomach, found a lot of cooked foods there, and there was a conflict between the apples acids and the gases from the cooked foods.

Thus the glowworm can start, increase or extinguish the light at will. It has often, indeed, been observed to diminish or extinguish its light when approached. Glibert White has an interesting note on this point. Observing two which had been brought into the garden, he found that they put out their lamps between it and it and shone no more for the rest of the night, it would appear, then, that whatever the nature of the luminous substance, this is only active when supplied with oxygen by the animal.

Flames Take Building.

A two-story frame building at No. 602 Sunset boulevard was destroyed yesterday shortly after noon by fire. The damage to the building amounted to $1000, and to the contents $500. It was occupied by F. W. Glover, owner, and L. E. Patch.

Injured by Elevator Cage.

While working beneath the elevator in the Wright & Callender building yesterday morning, Frank Fleishbacher, the janitor, was pinned beneath the cage. His right forearm was crushed, both bones being broken, and he sustained numerous other injuries. He was treated at the Receiving Hospital.

State Federation Outlook.

The convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs to be held at the Potter from the 8th to 12th insts., promises to be large. As many as 250 applications for accommodations have already been made, and the management is putting forth-every effort. Good programmes have been arranged for each day of the convention.

Levett Reception Date Unfixed.

Secretary Wiggins of the Chamber of Cemmerce received a telegram from Robert S. Lovett, head of the Harriman system, yesterday, in which he stated that he wished the reception would be postpored until he had an opportunity to rest and consult with some of the railroad department heads. The exact date of the public reception will not be decided until the arrival of former Judge Lovett and his party.

Railway Postal Clerks.

The members of the Railway Postal Clerks' Association were entertained by the Woman's Auxiliary at Lincoin Hail on Monday evening. A musical and literary programme was given, followed by a banquet and dance, about 150 guests taking part in the festivities. The auxiliary was formed less than a year ago, and has grown into a strong and prosperous club, meeting at the homes of members.

Y.M.I. Extensions.

Los Angeles Council, Y.M.I., entertained about 400 friends at Cumnock Hall with an entertainment entitled, "A Night in Old Kentucky." It was musical comedy, much in the nature of a minstrel show, and was presented by about twenty-five of the youngmen. Ben Hagen, who wrote the sketch, acted as director. After the performance the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Sond Boosters to Meet.

The boosters appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to begin a campaign for the harbor and power bonds will meet at the chamber shortly after noon today. The meeting was called by George H. Stewart, chairman, and former president of the chamber. The idea is to arouse enthusiasm for voting for the bonds. It is expected that a regular campaign similar to that conducted during the effort to awaken interest for the good reads project will be followed. Today's meeting is the first since the formation of the special committee.

Paying for Yuma Farms.

Paying for Yuma Farms.

Many of the successful applicants for Yuma farm lands made their first payments yesterday. A table in the Land Office was piled full of gold and silver before the close of the day. This money will approximate a considerable sum, as each of the 173 farmers will have to deposit $300 as a preliminary to setting possession. Yesterday marked just a month since the opening. Since then there has been all kinds of excitement, beginning with the line that formed with the permission of the police. The payments are nearly all made, and the company of pioneers will soon be setting forth for their little ranches.

The hookworm has invaded California, and the first specimens of the scourge of the Southern States were exhibited on slides before the Los Angeles County Medical Association at a meeting held in Blanchard Hall last night. These specimens were obtained by Dr. Joseph M. The first case to be called to Dr. King's attention was S. Uriu, a Japainese poolroom operator, aged 26, who dame to his office complaining that he was not able to work, owing to a growing weakness. Two years ago he left Japan for Mexico, where he worked in a mine, but, finding the labor hard, he quit and went to Mazarlan, where 12 was taken ill. The attack came on suddenly with a fever and abdominal pain. At the latter end of April, 1909, Uriu had recovered sufficient strength to come to Los Angeles, but, not improving, he sought medical aid.

Dr. King, after observing the symptoms, diagnosed the case as hookworm, and with the assistance of Dr. Jenks, discovered the hookworm discovery from a medical standpoint, and the eggs were preserved. Dr. King was also able to get specimens of the worm itself, both male and female.

It lays eggs in the bowels which hatch after evacuation by the thousands, living two or three months. Infection is caused by the eggs and embryo getting on the hands and thence into the mouth, finally finding a lodgment in the intestines. The larvae may also enter the body through the skin.

Dr. King's report created a sensation at the clinic last night, and the specimens he exhibited were viewed with the liveliest interest. FORFEITS HEAVY BAIL.

The bail of Dr. Alice von Rickert was declared forfeited in the United States District Court, yesterday. She was to have been tried for sending objectionable letters through the mail, but failed to make her appearance. If the defendant, however, voluntarily appears in court before May 25, the order forfeiting the $1000 will be rescinded. It was said in behalf of the woman that she is ill in Seattle at the present time.

LO, THE POOR TOURIST!

"The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year," for the poor tourists who have been spending the winter in California and who now feel obliged to take the "back track" for their homes in the East or Middle West, or anywhere beyond the

To be sure, the frost is coming out of the ground, To be sure, the frost is coming out of the grown up in Minnesota, and people are beginning to think of planting potatoes and green peas for a mess of the new crop when the Fourth of July shall come. The ice is out of the rivers and the leaves are putting out tentatively and with a good deal of misgiving the tender shoots for the foliage in "the leafy month of June." But there will be many days of chill winds, of sleet and rain, with flurries of snow, all over the East before the winter is entirely

California is at its very best for the next sixty days. There have been chilly mornings and cold nights during the past winter even here. The breezes along the coast have been a little too strong for entire comfort and the mountain regions too much like Denver and St. Paul. But for the next sixty days there is no part of Southern California, where "perfect days" will not be the rule, with scarcely an exception, and these days of perfection will be as much so at the beach as on the plain, and on the plain as along the mountain top. Anywhere from the silver sands where the breakers of the Pacific roll in to the snow line on San Antonio, San Bernardino and San Jacinto, the days will be indeed in absolute perfection. The skies will be at all hours, with rare exceptions, fleckless. sunshine will be so ardent as to strip the shoulders, even of the valetudinarian, of wraps. The plains are a sea of emerald, and the purple light upon the hills is more intense than ever. The orange groves are in full bloom and the atmosphere from the seacoast to the mountain is heavy with their sweet perfume. The poppies are gone from the mesas where the sun shines most ardently, but they still linger along in the arroyos and canons along the mountainside. The mustard is now in all its glory, fringing the roads and spreading abroad in golden sheen over the grain fields and meadows. The temperature from before sunrise until long after sunset is just what one would have it if he had his hand upon the button which controls the furnace of the sun.

April and May will pass, and June and July will be just a little less perfect from the weather point of view than the two months fronting us now. In the interior the sun's rays will be a little too ardent lounging on the sands by the seashore with the cool breezes full of life coming in from the ocean's broad expanse and its gentle music lulling all the senses to absolute rest and enjoyment. In these summer days the mountains with the tang of the pine tree on the air will be quite as fascinating and lulling of the senses to rest as the seaside. And then will follow the autumn, with all the ripeness of its many harvests, and for sixty more days it will be hard to discriminate as to whether April or October comes with more climatic charms to human senses.

And to descend from the esthetic to the practical, from the mere enjoyment of the artistic taste to the palate, think of the wealth and variety of the fruits California soils and suns will present for the health and comfort of the inner man for these next

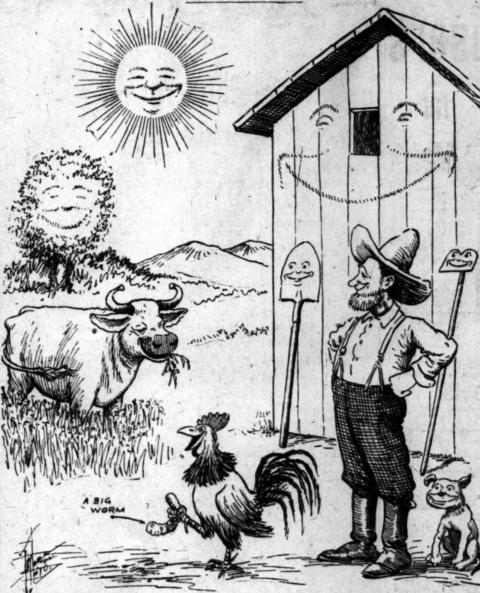

Our sympathies go out to these tourists of ours who have been enjoying the winter sunbeams with us for six months past, but who now must forego the enjoyment of the spring air, the summer calm But we have a new army of tourists coming after the departure of those who seek us during the win-ter. The ardent suns and treeless plains of the Territories between the two great mountain ranges Territories between the two great mountain ranges will pour their climate-chasers into Southern California from now until the end of September. The superheated climate of the Gulf States has for a hundred years been driving the inhabitants of those regions away to seek health and comfort far from the swamps, the "branch water," the everglades, mosquitoes and other pests of those low-lying States. They have found California for summer as the New Englanders discovered it for winter use, and there will be no week in the next six months any more will be no week in the next six months any more than in the last when within the gates of all the cities in all the southland there will not be the stranger reveling in the delights of a climate which the New Englanders say is most delightful in the winter months and the summer tourists insist is most perfect during the weeks of high temperature.

BETTER PRICES FOR EXPORTS. D Cotton, practically 15 cents a pound; corn 70 cents a bushel, wheat $1.09 a bushel, bacon and lard 12 cents a pound, and hay over $20 a ton are of the United States. The table of the Bureau of Statistics. Department of Commerce and Labor, shows that the average price per pound of cotton exported in February 1910 was 14.7 cents per pound, and in January, 14.9 cents, against 91/2 cents per pound in the corresponding months of last year; wheat $1.09 per bushel in February, 1910, and $1.06 in January, 1910, against $1 per bushel in January last year; corn 70 cents per bushel in February, 1910, and 69 cents per bushel in January, 1910 against 66.3 cents per bushel in January of last year, though even higher prices intervened later in the year, the average export price of corn in May, 1909, having been 78.3 cents per bushel; June, 77.4 cents, and August 75 cents.

Flour exports in February, 1910 averaged $5.13 er barrel, against $4.89 in February of the preceding year; hay, $20.66 per ton in February, 1910, against $17.71 in 1909; hops, 25.6 cents per pound in February, 1910, against 11.7 cents per pound in February, 1909, having thus more than doubled in the meantime; bacon, 12 cents per pound, against 10.3 per pound in the corresponding month last year; lard, 12 cents per pound, against 9.9 cents per pound in the corresponding month last year; canned beef, 11.4, against 10.8 cents in February, 1909; pickled pork, 10.8 cents, against 8.6 cents in Febru-ary of last year; oleo oil, 11.3 cents per pound in February, 1910, against 10.4 per pound of last years butter, 26.2 cents per pound in February, 1910, against 24.1 cents per pound in February of last year; cheese, 16.8 cents per pound in February, year; cheese, 16.8 cents per pound in February, 1910, against 12.7 cents per pound in February, 1909; cottonseed oil cake, 1.5 cents per pound in February, 1910, against 1.3 cents per pound in February, 1909; flaxseed, $2.20 per bushel in February, against $1.48 in February, 1909. Salted and fresh beef are slightly less than in February of last year, the former 7.3 cents per pound against 8 cents per pound a year earlier, the latter 10 cents against February, 1909.

Curiously the prices of manufactures show in the same period in many cases a decline and in other cases a less advance than those of breadstuffs. Pig exports, which in February, 1910, were quoted at $18.08 per ton, were in February, 1910, but $16.44 per ton; structural iron and steel, which in February, 1909, was quoted at $56.17, was in Februquoted at $49.03 per ton; wire nails in February, 1909, were quoted at 2.2 cents per pound in February, 1910, at 2.1 cents per pound; copper ngots in February, 1909, were 13.9 cents per por and in February, 1910, 13.1 cents per pound; il-luminating oil in February, 1909, 6.7 cents per gallon, in February, 1910, 6, cents per gallon, paraffin in February, 1909, 4.9 cents per gallon; paraffin in February, 1910, 4 cents per pound, and in February, 1910, 4 cents per pound; lumber (boards, deals and planks,) in March, 1909, $22.35 per the search annuals and in February, 1908, 823, 724, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 1909, 19 ALL SMILES IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

WANTED-A CONGRESSMAN.

VV Los Angeles people should make a careful note of President Taft's talk to the Ohio people the other night. Mr. Taft has had a good deal of experience in statesmanship and may be regarded as an expert witness. He told the Ohioans that small Eastern States exercise great influence in Congress because they are in the habit of picking a young man, a capable man, an honest man, electing him to Congress and keeping him there for nearly a life-time. In this way he learns politics in a practical way, becomes known at Washington, and his influence counts.

Congressmen are mostly politicians, and possibly politicians may be like Dr. Samuel Johnson's Scotchman. The crabbed old philosopher said: "Some-thing may be made out of a Scotchman if he is caught young." So the eastern people have learned to make something out of their Congressmen by catching politicians in their youth. It is a good thought for Los Angeles county people to dwell upon carefully during the next few This, county will have a Congressman all its own for two years after the 4th of March next. The city will have a Congressman to itself after the next Congressional term is over.

If we were wise we would get to work and pick out some competent, clean young citizen of the city, elect him to Congress and keep him there. He ought to be of the city of Los Angeles in order that he may succeed himself when the district is divided.

S TORY OF TWO CELTS.

John Burns of London is a Celt. He was until recently one of the chief agitators in Great Britain, demagogue of the worst kind. He is now a member of the Liberal Parliament and he has undergone as radical a change as any sinner that ever was saved at a camp meeting. He is quite a mildmannered Radical at the present time. He is admitted to the presence of the King, wearing a cocked hat, and King, Conservative and Radical, all pro-pose to raise his salary from $10,000 a year to $25,000. It seems to pay to be a little less of eater. That is the story of the Celt from London We have our own noted Celts in the United States, and which of them more distinguished than the Laird of Skibo, who has fayored Southern California with his presence for many weeks past and is now in Chicago on his way East?

Mr. Carnegie has been in his own way about as radical as John Burns in his way. In politics he has been considerable of a progressive. He has been particularly strong in his admiration for Col. Roosevelt. His memory is gratefully treasured by all "insurgents" and by most very advanced Popu-to say about that much-abused man, Uncle Joseph Gurney Cannon? Carnegie says: "Joe Cannon looks and acts more like Abe Lincoln than any other man I ever knew." But, says the reporter. "Do you think Cannon always does what he believes is right at the time?" The interviewer was not gifted with much penetration. He might have expected the answer from one who thought Cannon was like Lincoln, and the laird came back, "I do certainly, and as for bribing him, why, you couldn't any more do that than-than anything. I know it; I am sure

Mr. Carnegie is getting to be an old man. His spirit is mellower than his youth and his judgment riper. We scarcely expected that he would take such a dispassionate and philosophic view of things as he expresses in his estimate of Speaker Cannon But this is not all. Ben Tillman was one of the wildest agitators that ever came down the Congressional "pike." How he pawed the air and tore things up in the Senate and flung his pitchfork here, there and yonder! But Tillman is grown older, and then he has had a stroke of paralysis, and that has softened down the asperities of his disposition somewhat. On the same day that John Burns was mak-ing his "trek" through the streets of London to confer with the King and while Mr. Carnegie was treating the world to such a sulogy of Cannon, and to the disgust of all progressives and radicals, "insurgents" and Populists of all kinds and brands he announced it as his deliberate opinion that Mr. Cannon could not be defeated in his own district when he runs for Congress next fall.

when he runs for Congress next fall.

Oh, well, the world is all growing older. The young generation always is subject to mumps and one kind of epidemic or another, but the greater portion survives. Our young politicians and statesmen of late have been afflicted with a severe attack of extreme radicalism. They call it progression. Probably the crab has the same name for his gait in his own language. But wait. Time will cure the unripe minds of their insipidity and acidity, and we shall have many ardent agitators of the present day as mild by and by as John Burns. We ent day as mild by and by as John Burns. shall have other progressives revising their views of men and things after the fashion of Mr. Carnegie, and even the wildest of them, the Tillmans, will take a saner view of affairs as they get over the impulses of unguided youth, spurred by superabundant vitality.

Young muscles fed by hot blood and guided by superheated brains have always been good in a fight; but the adage will still hold, "Young men for war,

DON'T BURNISH YOUR MUSKET YET. Was it Waiter Scott who said of some doughty warrior of the Highlands, "One blast upon his bugle horn were worth 10,000 men"? And of whom was it the gentle Walter made this statement? Look in your dictionary of quotations and you will soon find The blast upon the bugle horn of yesterday did not come from the Highlands, but from France. Was not that a warlike toot that Admiral Fournie sent ricocheting all over Europe, America and the Orient? It was as awakening as when Marco Boz-zaris's sentinels shouted in the middle of the night,

The French admiral seems to have been drinking little too much Bordeaux. He saw visions, if he did not dream dreams, and his analysis is this:

Japan and England on one side, with France possible ally of these two, against the United States, probably all alone, with the possibility of Germany, Austria and Italy siding against the new triple al-liance of the French admiral.

Of course it was a scream resulting from a night mare on the part of the French admiral, and yet no thoughtful student of current events can fail to see a possibility outlined in Admiral Fournier's visions. Since the days of the great armada and its wreckage along the coast of what at that time was to the French "perfidious Albion," England has seen to it by hook or by crook, by fair means or foul, by putting a quarrel on some other nation or by picking a quarrel where none existed, by crushi open enemy or betraying an ally, that no maritime power should flaunt its pennants on the seas with greater power than that of the fleet under the Union Jack of Britannia, which for a thousand years boasts o have ruled the wave.

miral had when he turned the attention of the world from a possible conflict between England and Germany, with France as Britain's ally, and Germany alone, to a struggle between the United States and Japan, with Enland standing ready, either to save her ally from a crushing defeat or to give her trans-Atlantic rival the coup de grace at the proper time. The United States does not care "deuce aces," nor an over-mature apple, even, about Japan single-handed. We can take care of the island empire of the Orient alone now and will keep a navy so far ahead of the Mikado's in the years to come that an attack from that quarter need not be feared. The American government will never lay down a keel, commission a ship nor shoot a gun unless driven to of ourselves against any nation on earth at the present time single-handed, and against Great Britain before many years pass by.

And yet a point we must keep a weather eye upon is this possible coalition outlined by the French admiral between England and Japan to destroy the American navy before it becomes a danger-ous rival of that under the British flag. It is our own opinion that John Bull will "deal with" Ger-many before he undertakes to treat the American navy as he did the Spanish armada

HOW TO LEARN HOW. Teras Comments upon the Christian En-deavor Topic for April 3, "Christ Our Teacher." John xil, 44-50. By William T. Ellis.

By William T. Ellis.

Of all the world's great teachersBuddha, Confucius, Mohammed, Jesus being preëminent—it is admitted that the, last-named has the largest number of disciples. More remarkable than that fact, is the other one that the number of these learners and followers is multiplying rapidly. Buddha's pupils and those of Confucius are falling away. There seems to be an increase of those who sit at the feet of Mohammed. But it is Jesus who is teaching mankind how to live; so that even the godless admit him to be
"The Light of the World."

The Bible, along with its other offices, is a book of practical directions for every-day life. If one would know how to care for the body, how to behave in society, how to conduct one's self in daily employment, it is only necessary to search the pages of the Book of books.

Practice should precede preaching. The best sermons have two hands and two feet. These are the kind that the Bible most enjoins.

A thousand wise men have written rules for high living, but the Bible alone endures as the eternal standard of Hfe. The reason for this, and the chief difference between the injunctions of the Bible and of the other books, is that the latter presents a sublime motive, an omnipotent power, and an infinite reward for right conduct.

Religion is more than rhapeodies. It is not a mere esthetic contemplation of exaited truths. Much of the Bible is devoted to the plainest and most specific rules for one's manner of walk among men. It is part of the mission of Christian Endeavor to bring religion down out of the clouds of theory and impractical beliefs, onto the streets and lanes of this every-day world. Our gospel first had its expression in a Life lived among men, and its proper place today is in the homes, the shops and offices of the people.

Beware lest you imagine the Bible an impracticable book. There is a danger that its teachings may be regarded as only mystical and theoretical, beautiful for contemplation, but not heeded in day-to-day conduct. The scriptures are preëminently practical. They were written, in large part, to instruct men how to act in this present world. The Ten Commandments relate almost entirely to behavior on earth, and the new summary of them all, given by Christ himself, is the grand law of life for every day.

To do, it is necessary to know. And to know God's will we must seek it. There can be no divine direction when the Bible is unopened and prayer closet deserted.

Ø.Ø.Ø.SPRING TONIC

Most persons, even those who are ordinarily strong and healthy, need a tonic and blood purifier in the Spring. Some have no particular aliment, but are weak, debilitated and run-down. Winter life with its decreased amount of out-door exercise, and the fact that cold weather has kept the pores of the skin closed, prevented the proper amount of waste and refuse matter from being expelled from the system. These impurities entering the circulation have thinned and weakened the blood, and the body therefore does not receive a sufficient amount of blood nourishment. The general bodily weakness, tired feeling, fickle appetite, poor digestion, etc., show how ansemic the blood has become. Frequently skin diseases, pimples, cruptions, etc., break out and this is evidence of the impurity of the circulation. S. S. S. is the best Spring tonic, because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It is the only medicine on which you can rely to supply the system with the needed tonic effects and at the same time purify and enrich your blood. The use of S. S. S. at this time may save you from a long spell of sickness, and it will certainly prepare you for the strain of the long, hot Summer. S. S. S. is made entirely from roots, herbs and barks; it is Nature's tonic, pure and healthful. It regulates digestion, tones up the stomach, improves the appetite and promotes strong, vigorous health. # What Would You Call This?

Since 1875 we have been manufacturing Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, the most popular beverage preparation on the Pacific Coast, made so by the strength, smoothness, deliciousness and purity of this splendid product.

The name Ground Chocolate has been used by us exclusively during all these years, our product alone is properly described by this name, and it certainly is not applicable to the imitations of our goods now on the market.

Several manufacturers have deliberately taken the name Ground Chocolate and use it to describe their imitation products. What would call this sort of business?

Looks like borrowing without the intention of paying back, doesn't it? Avoid imitations that havn't enough merit to stand up under a name of their own. Insist on having Ghirardelli's, the genuine and original Ground Chocolate.

FORTIFICATIONS APPROVED.

What a pleasure it is to see some one do a genulnely friendly and unself-ish act, and that altogether unsolicted: I had such a pleasure a few days ago. At the corner of Fourth and Broadway, at an hour when traffic was most congested, a poor country woman, with several children seated in a rickety wagon, and driving a meager steed, waited timidly for an opportunity to cross the thoroughfare. I half believe that she thought the tide, some sort of parade, would soon pass and leave the street clear. Her tired eyes anxiously scunned the stream of conveyances, cars and humanity, and she held the reins tightly above the sawalike back of the forlorn family horsand wher.

Just as the old horse, half blind, I fancy, was falling into a comfortable pastoral doze, a motorcycle came gattling along, with explosions like a charge of artillery; and the horse, quivering as though being pelted with ammunition, crouched low as if to make a spring into the breaking Broadway surf.

Terror grew upon the face of the driver, and the little children, sitting upon kitchen chairs in the back of the wagon, clutched each other in fright. Just then, a gentleman—a true gentle ful and home-like air to her apartment.

"You have forgotten the pillows themselves." I hear you say. Well, they did not cost one cent, nor a fraction thereof. It would be fun to stop right there, wouldn't it, and leave you eyes.
on't you know that it took knightcourage for that gentleman, obusly fastidious as he was, to so concouously differentiate himself from throug, to do what he did?
Is so much more easy and natural pass over such an opportunity for fulness than to break through the sh shell of conventionality which rusts us and restrains from sponsous kindliness.

As to gowns, anything so it is clinging. This applies, of course, to the evening costume; although for street and all putdoor occasions, as well, there is a noticeable lack of fullness and all outdoor occasions, an well, there is a noticeable lack of fullness in skirts, and a reversion to long, simple lines. The Greek orevail once more. The Greek in head-dress, and in draperies. It is, to be sure, a modified style of Greek; for, as we have observed before, Fashion, when she revives a style, always gives it a little twist of her own, as she picks it up, just to let you know that she is attending to her business.

The goods, particularly in cottons and evening wear, is wide and beautiful, and appropriate to all occasions.

The goods, particularly in cotton and all tub materials, covers a field all the way from the finest weaves to those most extraordinarily coarse.

The same is true of trimmings; from the finest cotton or silk hand embroidery, convent work, if you please, to flaring designs done in large crocheted buttons, and rope-like threads of silk or cotton.

Queer combinations are seen, too, such as gold threads upon cotton or linen; silk upon cotton; woolen stuffs and lingerie laces combined.

"Freakish." I would call these styles, and yet they are oddly beautiful in many cases.

Attention, Men!

Have you ever noticed that the men gaze just as earnestly into the windows of clothing and furnishing stores and ponder as long before the side of shoe shops, as ever we do?

They claim that we are the clothes-wearing sex; and yet they dress for themselves, and we dress for them. For myself, I think I know when a man is well dressed, but I am not at all certain that I know why he is well dressed. Just what constitutes the correct suit, or tie, or hat, or cane.

Munger, at Symphony Hall last night, depicting the "Progress of the Panama Canal," gave a more vivid the Panama Canal," gave a more vivid insight into this great work than columns of newspaper description. Mr. Munger, who devoted his services in the interest of the Forestry Society of California, under whose auspices the lecture was given, made his first trip to the Isthmus of Panama twenty-five years ago, and has watched the work on the canal by personal visits almost yearly. The fastening together of the points of the collar of the outing shirt with the gold safety pin is a return to the fad of several years ago.

given before a large audience of Polytechnic High School students last evening in the auditorium of the High School by Arnold F. George, one of those who took part in the wild rush to the Klondike in 1898, and who lived for twelve years in that country. The lecture was illustrated with colored slides.

He compared the trip, as it was made in the early days of the gold rush, when men traveled on foot, or by dog sledges, and hundreds died from the hardships encountered, to the ease with which it can be made today in a Pullman car.

In telling of the difficulties met with in building the first railroad in that country, he showed pictures of engineers at work suspended from high cliffs by slender ropes. One cafen, which is now spanned by a modern steel bridge, he said, contained many dead horses when he first crossed it. The animals had been abandoned by miners in their mad rush to the gold fields and had died of exposure. They were piled five and ten deep, and to cross the cafen it was, necessary to cross the cafen it and the deep and

Hole Through Man's Head

Hole Through Man's Head.
During the South African war, says a writer in the March Strand, a Boer soldier hamed Frank Brown was shot in the forehead with a rife bullet. Strangely enough it did not kill him, and after the war he secured employment on one of the trans-Atlantic steamers. When fully a year had passed, and after a thorough examination the surgeon of the ship decided that the bullet, which had never been removed, must be extracted. This was done, and afterwards, for the amusement of his friends, the wounded soldier placed a lighted cigarette in the hole from which the bullet was extracted, and drew the smoke through his nose.

CLAREMONT, April 1.—E. H. Sanford was elected to the board of school trustees for the Claremont district to succeed himself, at the special election held here today. Mr. Sanford was previously a short-term member of the board, but now takes office for the thræyear period, beginning next July. W. N. Reach, Sanford's only opponent, received 47 votes against 101 for the district of the proposed strong partisan feeling, with the location of the proposed new 75,000 school building as the point at issue. Residents of the western portion of the city expect Sanford to vote for a western location for the new school, which citizens living in the north part of town voted for Reach with the hope that if elected he would swing the board to the adoption of a northern site. WOMAN INJURED.

Mrs. Dr. Giermann of Altadena was seriously injured in a runaway accident at the corner of Fair Oaks avenue and Walnut street late yesterday afternoon. Accompanied by her child, Mrs. Giermann was driving a spirited horse hitched to a runabout, south on Fair Oaks avenue. When they reached valuut street the horse became frightened at a burro and started to run away. The buggy was upset in making the turn. Mrs. Giermann was thrown on the curb and sustained a broken shoulder, but the child escaped unhurt. The injured woman was taken to her home in an auto, The frightened horse ran east on Walnut street and was captured near Worcester avenue by Joseph A. Williams.

gravia or Mayfair for the London sea-son runs from £100 to £500 per month, it will be seen that such a loan is in reality a substantial gift. A lady whose daughter was one of the pret-tiest débutantes of 1907, and who has since, by the way, married a wealthy countryman of my own, told me her-self that she managed to get through the London season when chaperoning her daughter for a really trifling sum. She was one of the most persistent borrowers in society; she borrowed a furnished flat every season; she bor-rowed servants, carriages, motor cars,

That Manuel de la Fuente is aged 71' years is largely responsible for the fact that he received a nine months' jail sentence last night from Judge Oster of San Bernardino, sitting here, instead of a term in San Quentin. Fuente was convicted of slashing Charles Quintana with a knife. The jury recommended mercy and the judge took note of the man's age.

W. A. Brauer, who says he is an artist and decorator from Los Angeles, pleaded guilty before Judge Oster today to the charge of petity larceny, the theft of S. E. Tingley's bleycle, and was sentenced to six months in the County Jail.

MANY SONS

easons we strongly rchase of MIDWAY at 131/2 cents pe

re is no chance to nal decline from 135 safety of the investors' money is the Company far and away above selection of each separate holding of this Company has been made by men in the (rganization who understand the oil business thor oughly in every way, shape and manner. We are not at liberty at practical oil men who have guided the MIDWAY UNION thus far in production. The only thing to be done is to get down to the oil as quickly as possible, and with this end in view, Mr. Charles E. Finney, Vice President and Field Manager, will at once order a Standard Drilling Rig. Tools, etc., for the Midway tract, and the first well on the Midway tract is to be started at once. This well is to be known as the MIDWAY UNION No. 1 on Property No. 1.

Another reason for urging you to buy the stock at once is because it is selling rapidly at 13½ cents, and cannot last forever. Furthermore, the management may soon decide that they can as readily secure 15 cents per share as 13½ cents per share, and therefore advance the price. As a matter of fact, there are enough good talking points and valid reasons to now warrant an advance to 25 cents per share, and we venture to predict that 25 cents per share will be reached in a very short time.

As to the future, looking a year ahead, we venture the opinion that MIDWAY UNION will easily pass the $1.00 mark. Our predictions are based upon sound estimates of what may reasonably be expected from a liberal development of the great holdings of the MIDWAY UNION.

Call and talk the matter over with us. You will have cause for regret if you do not secure all of this stock at 13½ cents that you can arrange to pay for.

CONCERNING THE MCKITTRICK INVESTORS' OIL COMPANY

We wish to announce to the oil stock buying public that we have completed the sale of 100,000 shares treasury stock of the McKittrick Investors Oil Company, for which we began accepting subscriptions, as announced in these columns Monday morning. The entire issue was oversubscribed and we have no more stock for sale. This stock was listed yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, where those who wish to buy or sell the shares will hereafter find a market

The Company is to operate a lease on 45 acres in Section 11. Township 30, Range 21 of the McKittrick field. It is now thoroughly financed for the putting down of one or two wells and we look for rapid and aggressive development under the capable management of Directors W. H. Joyce, John Howze, Claire S. Tappaan and Elmer E. Cole.

Get the Facts About

Let us tell you why we KNOW investment in the shares will make you large profits-why we KNOW dividends will be increased-why we KNOW you will be able to double your principal.

We are not guessing about these important features of the investment. We are just as sure that Section Six will make money for you—and a great deal of money—as we were that Illinois Crude, London Petroleum, Premier and the others we recommended would make money for the investors.

Those investments HAVE been money makers-have made from 100 to 250 per cent. profit for the people who followed our advice and bought when the shares could be obtained at a low price.

Section Six will do as well-if not better. Everything points to a big advance in price in the near future. We are expecting news from one of the properties that will cause the price to make a big jump. This news may come any day and the opportunity to secure the shares at the present price will be gone.

Section Six is an investment-there is no speculation attached to it—it is sure to advance the real assets back of the investment are far more than what is represented by the present

Your money invested in the shares is safe and will give you good interest at once, and still greater interest in a short time, and the principal will soon be doubled. We advise immediate purchase at the market. Full particulars furnished upon request.

Through the medium of The Oil Book, published weekly, we keep our clients in close touch with everything pertaining to the oil in-dustry of this State. The publication is well illustrated and each issue contains articles by well-known writers upon oil topics and financial matters. This service is not confined to our clients, the publication is free upon request.

STOPS BARNEY ON THE TRACK

Watchman Orders Oldfield from Motordrome.

Bragg Goes a Mile With a Woman Passenger.

Speed King Lauds Robertson as Premier Driver.

Rai

Barney Oldfield was ordered off the Motordrome track yesterday afternoon by a watchinan who did not know the automobile world record breaker. Oldfield reached town yesterday and could not wait for the reception planned by his friends but insisted on driving his knox down to the piepan. Late yesterday afternoon Oldfield drove the stock car onto the boards and started to make a fast circuit.

"Hey there, you. Get off that track," shouted an Irate guard.

The speed king turned in surprise to see a man wildly waving his arms and motioning him off the boards.

"This track is for race drivers," said the watchman. "You've got no business on there."

"That's Oldfield," shouted a small boy.

"This day I heard such music that I thought,

Hath human speech the power thus to be boy.

The watchman gasped for breath, looked sheepishly around to see how many people had watched him, and then gased speechless at the man who holds more world records than any other driver of an automobile.

Caleb Bragg was again the sensation of the time trials yesterday. With his Flat "ninety," Bregg slipped around the course in 3% flat. His wonderful car is doing the fastest miles that have been turned thus far. Bragg's car seems to be capable of even more speed.

WOMAN RIDES,

WOMAN RIDES. Just to show how easy it is to make miles under 40s. Bragg took Mrs. George Townsend in his Flat and skimmed around the boards in 39 4-5s. Mrs. Townsend showed her grit by urging the Flat man to drive faster. She was then turning a mile faster than a woman had ever ridden in an automobile.

than a woman had ever ridden in an automobile.

The handsome car and the pretty woman made a picasant picture as the Fiat hummed around the course. The track is perfectly cafe, and Mrs. Townsend was willing to ride one, two or ten miles.

"Perfectly grand," was Mrs. Townsend's expression after completing the fast miles.

The Palmer-Singer, with Frank Lescault at the wheel, turned several fast miles.— This big car is wonderfully speedy and it is said has not been let out to the limit.

speedy and it is said has not been let out to the limit.

"Look out for the Stoddard-Dayton," is the word that is being passed among the racing drivers. The fast sixty-horse-power Stoddard and Al Livingston are a dangerous combination and may bring some of the favorites down a notch or two.

The Stoddard has done 42s in practice. How much faster fae car can go, only Livingston can tell. The Stoddard is to be out today with the engine properly tuned. Livingston expects to go several fast miles and will practice every day until the opening of the races.

Oldfield is to practice this afternoon. He has not tried the track yet. His first glance yesterday made Barney open his eyes. He declared the course is one of the greatest he has ever seen and is one of the finest mile tracks in the world.

After circling the course a few times in a six-cylinder knox with Charlic Burman as mechanician, Barney pulled up and extended his hand to Jack Prince.

BARNEY THERE.

"Got to slip it to you, Jack," was his comment, "you have more than made good on your promises. Just put Barney's name to the O. K. list and I will show them that your predictions about speed were true."

Oldfield said last night: "I am pleased with the track and I am sure Los Angeles will boast of a string of broken records when the meet is over. I will not be on the track with my nig Bens more than one afternoon before the races. The car is a marvel of speed and deep the races. The car is a marvel of speed and deep the races. The car is a marvel of speed and deep the races. The car is a marvel of speed and deep the races. The car is a marvel of speed and deep the races.

The steelhead trout season opened auspiciously vesterday with many fine strings reported from the anglers who fished in the Ventura and Santa Barbara streams, and main river and forks of the San Gabrie!

Deputy State Fish and Game Commissioner I. W. Pritchard rambled up and down the main stream of the San Gabrie! in the interests of rainbow trout, but so far no trouble has been reported with over-anxious anglers who haven't the heart to throw a toothsome rainbow beauty back into the water when the fish basket is empty.

Pritchard wants all the fishermen to know where he is located, so they'll let him alope. He would like to do a little fishing on the side himself. There are more rainbow than steelhead trout in the San Gabriel by long odds, and the novice anglers had better be able to teil one variety from the other, for the fine imposed on guilty parties is a big slice out of a week's salary.

Many parties who were unable to go out yesterday are planning to limber up their lines and give the trout a faste of the worms today and tomorrow. Ventura seems to be the rendez-vous of a majority of the local fishermen, for the sport there is excellent.

Completion of well on COALINGA CRUDE OIL means big advance on Exchanges

Coalinga Crude Oil Company stock ha sheen listed on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange at Los Angeles.

This stock has been listed at this time, prior to bringing in the first well on this property, in order to enable the public to secure this stock at its initial low prices before the advance occurs, which usually takes place with the bringing in of the first well on an oil property.

As a rule when a Company has had production, and its stock has been listed for some time, the chance to make initial profits on the stock has usually passed.

The Coalinga Crude Oil Company own and are aggressively developing a splendid piece of absolutely proven property in the shallow part of the Coalinga field. Their water well has been drilled and completed, and they expect to finish their first oil well have a real toth.

piece of absolutely proven property in the shallow part of the Cominga men. Then water well has been drilled and completed, and they expect to finish their first oil well before April 10th.

We recommend the purchase of this stock now at the present market prices between 30c and 35c prior to the time of bringing in this first well, because when that event occurs prices on this stock are bound to be very much higher.

Production possibilities from properties in Section 26, where the Coalinga Crude property is located, are so well known that returns can be figured to a nicety. Experts place the earning power of Coalinga Crude stock at at least two per cent, per month on par when the property is developed. Such an earning power on this stock, which now can be purchased at about one-third of its par value, makes this an extremely desirable investment for dividends; and if the stock is bought now before the bringing in of the first well, large profits in appreciation of value should be made.

The Company is conservatively capitalized and efficiently managed; the actual field work being under the direction of Mr. Charles Spurlin, formerly Superintendent of the Standard Oil Company.

We suggest immediate action by those who are interested. You can purchase large or small amounts of this stock through any broker on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, or we will fill your order at the market price of the day received.

Full particulars of the Company; its organization, properties and development work, with maps and photographs, will be furnished upon application by person or by lever.
